Let's Start!

Working in a restaurant can be interesting!

Learning Outcome

Exchange information about people's interests and backgrounds using a wider range of language.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food and drink at a restaurant.
- I can offer service and help.
- I can talk about future action.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you eat out at a restaurant?
- How would you describe a fancy restaurant?
- What type of food do you like to order?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa suggests giving the ring the old-fashioned way.

* Vanessa suggests that the man should go down on one knee to propose.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Good evening. How many people are in your party?
Mr. Brown: One other person is meeting me here. Her office closes late this week.
Vanessa: So for two then. Do you have a reservation?
Mr. Brown: Of course. It's for Brown. Edmund Brown.
Vanessa: Could I suggest a table by the window?
Mr. Brown: That goes without saying.
Vanessa: Okay. I'm going to seat you here. I'll bring you the menus. Would you like the wine list as well?
Mr. Brown : Certainly.
Vanessa: Here you go sir. Could I recommend the house wine?
Mr. Brown: Definitely not. We're celebrating tonight. I'll choose something. I'm going to propose. I'm going to put the ring in the wine.
Vanessa: I wouldn't recommend that sir. Whenever the ring is in the wine or inside the cake, it often gets swallowed!
Mr. Brown: That stands to reason.
Vanessa: I'd suggest the old-fashioned way.
Mr. Brown: Hmm.
Vanessa: I'll tell you the specials for tonight. We're serving orange glazed duck with green beans almandine. There's also grilled rainbow trout with asparagus.
Mr. Brown: Thank you. I'm not going to choose until Miranda arrives. She's coming in about 10 minutes. However, I'll have a bottle of this Chardonnay.
Vanessa: I'll bring your wine. Is your date expecting you to be seated?
Mr. Brown: Hmm ... maybe not.
Vanessa: I'll watch out for her then. I'm on the door all evening.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa offers something different!

Instructions: Read the question and select the correct answer.

1. Which sentence offers service or help?
 - Is your date expecting you to be seated?
 - Could I recommend the house wine?
 - Definitely not.
 - That stands to reason.
2. Which sentence does NOT offer service or help?
 - Could I suggest a table by the window?
 - One other person is meeting me here.
 - I'd suggest the old-fashioned way.
 - I wouldn't recommend that sir.

Let's Practice!

Edmund is going to propose!

Instructions: Choose the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank:

I'm going to put / I will have / I'll tell / am not going / Her office closes

1. I _____ to choose until Miranda arrives.

Learning Points

Offering Service and Help

When you offer service and help to customers, remember to be polite. The modals could and would are used to make an offer or invite someone to do something. You can respond to requests using the modals could and would to suggest something.

When you respond to an offer of service or help, you should answer politely. However, this does not always happen.

Offer Service or Help	Respond to Offers
Could I suggest a table by the window?	That goes without saying. (not polite)
Could I recommend the house wine?	Definitely not. (not polite)
I wouldn't recommend that, sir.	That stands to reason. (polite)
I'd suggest the old-fashioned way.	That stands to reason. (polite)

Learning Points

The Future With Will, Going to, the Present Continuous

You can use three different tenses to talk about the future.

When you talk about things that are not decided or when you make a decision at the moment of speaking for the future, you use the modal will.

When you ask about intentions, you use be going to.

When you talk about things that are arranged, on the agenda or booked for the future, you use the Present Continuous tense.

Deciding Now

I'll bring you the menus.
I'll choose something.
I'll tell you the specials for tonight.
However, I'll have a bottle of this Chardonnay.

Intentions

I'm going to seat you here.
I'm going to propose.
I'm going to put the ring in the wine.

Plans / Things On the Agenda

One other person is meeting me here.
We're celebrating tonight.
She's coming in about 10 minutes.
Is your date expecting you to be seated?
