

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

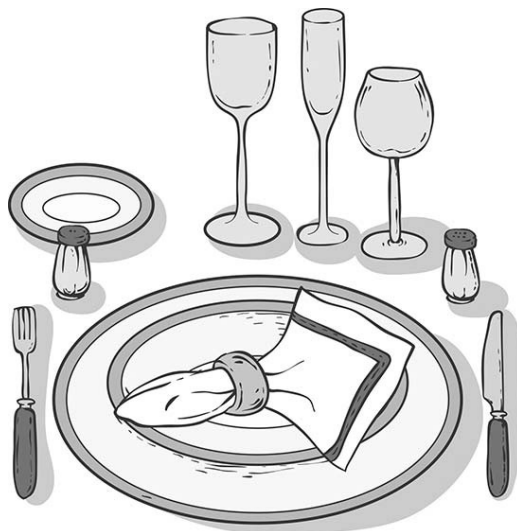

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Come to the Awards Dinner!

Learning Outcome

Describe complicated or unusual events in the past through a wider range of B1 language in both work and social contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can deal with customers at a restaurant.
- I can say and use words like scent and scene.
- I can use proper intonation and stress in long questions.

Ask your partner:

- What special event have you been to at a restaurant or in a banquet hall?
- How were the tables arranged?
- What were the decorations like?

Let's Explore!

The head table is crescent-shaped.

* A "crescent" looks like the moon when it is less than half-full.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Host: Come along with me, Ms. Scenario. Do you like what we have come up with for the Science and Scientists dinner?
- Ms. Scenario: I see you took my advice and had the stairs ascend in the center to a crescent-shaped head table. Is it possible to descend on either side as well?
- Host: Yes, Ms. Scenario.
- Ms. Scenario: The luminescence of the small fluorescent lights is delightful.
- Host: Have you noticed how we mounted scenes from scientific discoveries on large isosceles triangles on the wall?
- Ms. Scenario: Fascinating! I knew I could count on you to pull this dinner off! Is there a scent in the room as well?
- Host: Yes, a slight one. Does it meet with your approval?
- Ms. Scenario: It's interesting, but we could do without it.
- Host: Would you like to go over the menu again? The starters, the main course, and dessert?
- Ms. Scenario: I'm sure it's fine. I've heard back from everyone. It's a full house!
- Host: As promised, we will clean up quickly after dinner and clear away the tables.
- Ms. Scenario: That can happen right after we give out the miscellaneous awards.
- Host: Can we light up the candles and bring in the small orchestra then?
- Ms. Scenario: Yes. We'll carry on our evening with cocktails, nibbles and dancing!

Let's Practice!

Ms. Scenario loves luminescence!

Instructions: Select all the sc words with a silent c. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. I see you took my advice and had the stairs ascend in the center to a crescent-shaped head table.
2. Is it possible to descend on either side as well?
3. Fascinating! I knew I could count on you to pull this dinner off!
4. The luminescence of the small fluorescent lights is delightful.

Let's Practice!

Who's excited for the Science and Scientists dinner?

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Circle the incorrect words. Write the correct word above to complete the sentence. Use capital letters where necessary.

1. Do you like what we have comes up with for the Science and Scientists diner?
2. Is it posible to decend on either side as well?
3. The starters, the main curse, and desert?
4. Can we light up the candes and bring in the small orchestra then?
5. Will we cary on our evenig with cocktails, dinner and dancing?

Extension Activity

Plan a party!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think of a good reason for planning a party.
- Discuss the things you will need for the party including the menu and decorations and gifts for the guests.
- Write a paragraph describing the plan for the party.
- Use at least two phrasal verbs and two SC words.
- Read your paragraph and add any other ideas you come up with.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I discuss the planning of a party.

☐
☐

I write out a plan.

☐
☐

I use SC words.

☐
☐

I read my paragraph.

☐
☐

Target Words

- to ascend (verb): to go up
e.g. You ascend the steps in the center.
- to descend (verb): to go down
e.g. You can descend the stairs on either side of the stage.
- luminescence (noun): a soft light
e.g. The luminescence of the small lights is delightful.
- fluorescent (adjective): producing a bright light, usually from tube-shaped bulbs
e.g. These lights are fluorescent.
- to pull off (verb): to manage to do something difficult e.g. I knew I could count on you to pull this dinner off!
- to do without (verb): to manage without having e.g. It's interesting, but we could do without it.
- to clear away (verb): to remove things
e.g. After dinner we'll clear away the tables.
- miscellaneous (adjective): various
e.g. We're going to give out the miscellaneous awards.

Learning Points

Pronouncing Silent Letter Words

Silent letters are letters that appear in a particular word but they are not pronounced when the word is said. The c is sometimes silent in English when it follows an s in a word.

When you pronounce these words, you pronounce the s, but not the c.

science
scientist
scene scent ascend crescent descend fascinate
fluorescent
isosceles luminescent
miscellaneous
scenario

Examples:

- I see you took my advice and had the stairs ascend in the center to a crescent-shaped head table.
- Is it possible to descend on either side as well?
- The luminescence of the small fluorescent lights is delightful.
- Have you noticed how we mounted scenes from scientific discoveries on large isosceles triangles on the wall?

Learning Points

The Pronunciation of Phrasal Verbs

Where do you put the stress in a phrasal verb?

If the phrasal verb is not separable, then you stress the verb.

Example: go over

Let's go over the menu. (go over - is not finished without the object menu.)

I didn't hear back.

If the Phrasal verb is separable, then the stress is on the particle (preposition).

Example: pull off

I knew you could pull this party off!

Examples:

- Would you like to go over the menu again?
- I've heard back from everyone.
- As promised, we will clean up quickly after dinner and clear away the tables.
- That can happen right after we give out the miscellaneous awards.
- Can we light up the candles and bring in the small orchestra then?
- We'll carry on our evening with cocktails, nibbles and dancing!

