

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

What's on the menu tonight?

Learning Outcome

Exchange information about people's interests and backgrounds using a wider range of language.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food and drink at a restaurant.
- I can ask and provide information.
- I can make and respond to polite requests.

Ask your partner:

- When was the last time you went to an expensive restaurant?
- Who was with you?
- What was the occasion?

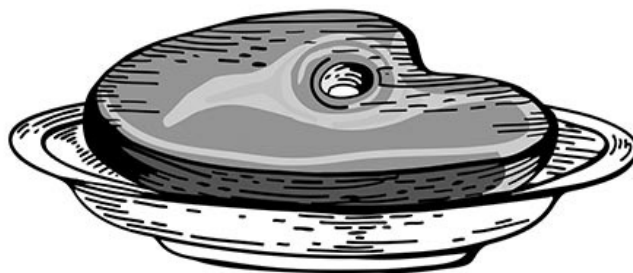

Let's Explore!

Melinda orders an elaborate dessert.

* "Elaborate" means fancy.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Good evening. Can I help you?
Melinda: Hello. I'm waiting for someone.
Vanessa: Is it a Mr. Brown?
Melinda: Yes. We're meeting here. He's buying me a nice dinner. Then, I'm leaving.
Vanessa: Oh. Do you need to go somewhere else?
Melinda: No. I'm going to break up with him. My train home leaves at 11:30. I want to be on it.
Vanessa: Won't he be upset?
Melinda: He'll get over it. How late do you serve?
Vanessa: The kitchen serves until midnight all week.
Melinda: Hmmm. Could you make sure our dinner comes quickly?
Vanessa: Certainly. I can do that.
Melinda: Would you also make sure the wine keeps coming? I'd like him as happy as possible.
Vanessa: Of course, Miss.
Melinda: Here's my credit card. Will you please bill me for the second bottle and a very elaborate second dessert? He'll want trifle or mousse or tiramisu. He's going to want to eat more after I tell him.
Vanessa: Thanks. Now I'll take you over to Mr. Brown.
Melinda: Are you staying and taking our order as well?
Vanessa: I'd be happy to do that. Come this way please.
Melinda: Edmund darling. Miss?
Vanessa: What can I do for you?
Melinda: We'll have two large steaks with baked potatoes and a large caesar salad to start please.
Vanessa: I'll take care of that right away. Would you sign here please?
Melinda: Of course.

Let's Practice!

Does Vanessa ask for or provide information?

Instructions: Classify the following sentences into the correct category.

- How late do you serve?
- Can I help you?
- I'm waiting for someone.
- He'll get over it.
- Yes. We're meeting here.
- The kitchen serves until midnight all week.
- Do you need to go somewhere else?
- Won't he be upset?
- Is it Mr. Brown?
- He's buying me a nice dinner.

Ask for information

Provide information

Let's Practice!

Vanessa's customer wants the wine to keep coming!

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Circle the incorrect word. Write the correct word above to complete the sentence. Use capital letters where necessary.

1. Could you makes sure our dinner comes quickly?
2. Would you also to make sure the wine keeps coming?
3. Woulds you bill me for the second bottle and a very elaborate second dessert?
4. Would you signing here, please?
5. Would you stay and took our order as well?

Extension Activity

Do a restaurant role play!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a short dialogue.
- With a friend, imagine you are in a restaurant.
- Imagine one of you is a waiter/waitress and the other person is a customer.
- Have a conversation between the waiter/waitress and customer.
- The customer asks about the food. The waiter/waitress should answer the questions politely and recommend something from the menu.
- Practice the dialogue with a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write a dialogue between a customer and waiter in a restaurant.

☐ ☐

I ask questions about food.

☐ ☐

I recommend food to a customer.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- credit card (noun): a card to use in place of cash
e.g. Please use my credit card to bill me for dinner.
- trifle (noun): a dessert made with custard, fruit and whipping cream
e.g. We have an excellent trifle for dessert tonight.
- mousse (noun): a light dessert made with eggs and cream
e.g. This is a chocolate mousse and this is a strawberry mousse.
- tiramisu (noun): a dessert made with soft cheese and coffee
e.g. The tiramisu is made with a traditional Italian recipe.
- darling (noun): a term of endearment
e.g. Thank you so much Edmund, darling.
- baked potato (noun): a potato cooked whole in the oven
e.g. Can we have a baked potato with our steak please?

Learning Points

Asking For and Providing Information

When you ask for information, you can use either WH-questions or Yes-No questions depending on what information you ask for.

When you provide information, you give facts. You may do this with with future tenses: will, going to, the Present Continuous or the Present Simple.

Asking for Information	Providing Information
Can you show me my table?	Sure. It's at the back of the restaurant.
Is it an important meeting?	Yes. We're meeting a new employee today.
How late does the kitchen serve?	The kitchen serves until 11:00 p.m.
Won't he help me?	He'll help you when she arrives.

Examples:

- Vanessa: Is it a Mr. Brown?
- Melinda: Yes. We're meeting here. We'll eat, then, I'm leaving.
- Vanessa: Oh. Do you need to go somewhere else?
- Melinda: No. I'm breaking up with him.
- Vanessa: Won't he be upset?
- Melinda: He'll get over it.
- Vanessa: How late do you serve?
- Melinda: The kitchen serves until midnight all week.

Learning Points

Making Polite Requests

When you make polite requests in a work environment, you can use the modals could and would.

You use these phrases to make requests:

- Could you + base form of the verb ... ?
- Would you + base form of the verb ... ?

Examples:

• Customer: Could you make sure our dinner comes quickly?

Waiter: Certainly. I can do that.

• Customer: Would you also make sure the wine keeps coming?

Waiter: Of course, Miss.

• Customer: Would you please bill me for the second bottle and a very elaborate second dessert?

Waiter: I'll take care of that right away.

• Waiter: Would you sign here please?

Customer: Of course.

