

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

This is not what I ordered!

Learning Outcome

Describe complicated or unusual events in the past through a wider range of B1 language in both work and social contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can deal with a difficult customer.
- I can show I understand someone's feelings or situation.
- I can talk about necessity using words like must.

Ask your partner:

- Have you ever had to send food back in a restaurant? Why?
- Have you ever been sick from food you've eaten in a restaurant? What kind of food was it?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa is so sorry.

* You often add "so" to sorry to show you are extremely sorry.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Waiter: Vanessa, there's a problem at table 5.
Vanessa: Not the one by the window!
Waiter: No, this is the one on the right, beside the wall.
Vanessa: What's the problem?
Waiter: They say they are not eating one more bite of their cheesecake. They say it's not edible. They say it's not fit for human consumption!
Vanessa: I'd better go right over. You should come as well.
Waiter: Alright.
Vanessa: Sir, I'm so sorry you felt you had to complain. What is the problem?
Customer: The cheesecake is disgusting. You have to try it. You mustn't let anyone else have any!
Vanessa: Do you mind if I taste it?
Customer: I promise it does not taste the way you would expect it to!
Vanessa: Oh! You're right! Daniel, you must take the cheesecake away immediately. You have to find the rest of it as well, please. You should also put all the cheesecake aside until we've sorted the problem out.
Waiter: Yes, I will.
Vanessa: Sir, I agree that is sickening. You must feel nauseated if you ate more than one bite!
Customer: We did not, thank goodness.
Vanessa: You must be quite displeased with us. It must be extremely disappointing after your meal! Can I please offer you another dessert? Of course there will not be any charge for your meal!
Customer: Usually your desserts are far above-standard.
Vanessa: I do apologize and I hope you will not hold this against us.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa says you should try this!

Instructions: Choose the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

try / let / away / rest / sorted

1. You have to ____ it.
2. You mustn't ____ anyone else have any!
3. Angela, you must take the cheesecake _____ immediately.
4. You have to find the _____ of it as well, please.
5. You should also put all the cheesecake aside until I've _____ the problem out.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa says you must be disappointed!

Instructions: Organize the mystery sentences. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. You / . / us / must / displeased / quite / be / with
_____.
2. sickening / I / is / agree / . / that
_____.
3. ate / more / ! / nauseated / than / one / You / if / you / must / bite / feel
_____.
4. Meal / extremely / disappointing / after / ! / your / must / be / It
_____.
5. It / . / horrible / taste / must
_____.

Extension Activity

Write about a bad restaurant experience.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Tell someone about eating in a restaurant where something was wrong with the food or service.
- Write a few lines to explain why you were disappointed.
- Write a few more lines to say what the restaurant should/ought to/had better do differently.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I talk about the food and service in a restaurant.

☐ ☐

I explain why it was not very good.

☐ ☐

I explain what the restaurant needs to do to improve the food and service.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- fit for human consumption (expression): safe to eat
e.g. It's not fit for human consumption!
- to expect (verb): to believe something will happen
e.g. It does not taste the way you would expect it to!
- rest (noun): the remaining part e.g. You have to find the rest of it as well, please.
- to sort out (verb): to deal with; to find the reason for e.g. You should also put all the cheesecake aside until I've sorted the problem out.
- sickening (adjective): making you feel ill
e.g. Sir, I agree that is sickening.
- nauseated (adjective): feeling as if you may vomit
e.g. You must feel nauseated.
- displeased (adjective): unhappy
e.g. You must be quite displeased with us.
- above standard (adjective): higher quality than expected e.g. Usually your desserts are far above-standard.
- to hold against (verb): to think badly of e.g. I do apologize and hope you will not hold this against us.

Learning Points

Dealing with Difficult Customers

When you are dealing with customers in restaurants, you may have to apologize.

When you apologize you can show that you understand how they are feeling with:

You must ... + adjective + ed

It must ... + adjective + ing

Examples:

- I agree that is sickening.
- You must feel nauseated if you ate more than one bite!
- You must be quite displeased with us.
- It must be extremely disappointing after your meal!

The Position of Not

When you want to emphasize that something or an action is opposite to what is expected, use not, rather than a contraction in the sentence.

For example:

They say they will not eat any more of it.

Sir, I hope you will not hold this against us.

The word not shows firmness on the part of the speaker while still being polite.

Statement	Meaning
They say they are not eating one more bite of their cheesecake.	They refuse to eat the cheesecake.
They say it's not edible.	No one can eat this.
They say it's not fit for human consumption!	This is unsafe to eat.
I promise it does not taste the way you would expect it to!	The taste is opposite to what you would expect.
We did not, thank goodness.	We're happy we refused.